Continuing Peter's series on the Missions we are currently supporting. This week - Release International

	Release International Voice of Persecuted Christians Release International works through local Church partners in more than 25 countries helping persecuted Christians prayerfully, pastorally and practically. Oppression and discrimination against Christians have increased during Covid. Many Christians have been denied food and relief and are abandoned by families because of their faith. In Eritrea those fleeing persecution have been barred from refugee camps and are unable to gain support from UNHCR, the United Nations' relief agency. Release International Partners in Eritrea are providing food parcels for some of these families https://releaseinternational.org/

Almighty God,
 you search us and know us:
 may we rely on you in strength
 and rest on you in weakness,
 now and in all our days;
 through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Sincere Apologies to those of you who failed to receive the Sermon last week.

I don't know about you but I feel so blessed- I have to remind myself sometimes though. It's so easy to become complacent and to take things for granted. Simple luxuries, for example, hot showers, 'click & collect' shopping, tv programmes (yes, even the constant repeats!!) that entertain & fill the days and evenings. Then there are the blessings from our Creator, too numerous to list here, such as the warmth of the sun on my face, the cool rain when the sun has been just too hot! my garden which is properly bursting with all manner of wonderment. Also, friends - the companionship and encouragement that they bring and the smiles and laughter of my gorgeous grandchildren. Yes, there are so many different blessings and the need to be thankful to God each and every day. Then I turn to watch the news and my thankfulness seems so selfish in this world of need. I temper my joy sometimes because others don't share the same blessings. What can I do? Our heavenly Father hears, sees and knows everything. And so I try to be kind to others (not always succeeding) and I pray, for others less fortunate and for those with the power to change situations

Thank you Sue Lee for these thoughts

Here is a prayer that covers people in a multitude of situations. Be strong in your caring!

Prayers of Intercession

Lord, today, we pray for those who have little or nothing:

For those who feel trapped in their situation, & can't see the bigger picture or even a tiny glimmer of light.

We pray for people who are hungry.

For parents who struggle to feed their children & themselves

We thank you for the work of food banks, & pray that they would have the resources to continue to meet so many needs.

We pray that you would give us an appreciation of our food:

The work that goes into producing and distributing it

Teach us not to be wasteful

But to preserve & pass on the goodness of Your earth. Amen.
