Michaelmas: The Feast of St Michael: 29th September

Our church in Great Houghton has been known as St Michael and All Angels since at least the turn of the 20th Century. It was formally dedicated on 17th December 1960 by The Right Reverend G. V. Gerard CBE MC MA Assistant Bishop of Sheffield. There are around 150 other parishes in England dedicated to St Michael or to St Michael and All Angels including St Michael and All Angels, Houghton le Spring, Tyne and Wear.

Michael is traditionally one of the Archangels and is mentioned by name in the vision of the future and end times that the Lord gave to Daniel; "At that time Michael, the great prince who protects your people, will arise." [Daniel 12: 1] Michael is also included in the description of the heavenly war where he and his angels fought against and defeated the Dragon and his angels. [Revelation 12: 7-9].

Funerals at All Saints:

Thursday 29th September: 1:45 p.m. David Wagstaff

Friday 7th October: 1:45 p.m. Hazel Camplejohn

Ten days of mourning: H.M. Queen Elizabeth II: 1926-2020

Our churches were open to allow visitors to spend time in prayer and reflection, and to sign our Books of Condolence. The Union Flag replaced the usual St George's flag and was lowered to half-mast for the duration. Our bellringers rang "Kings and Queens" with bells half-muffled and joined in the national ring at 12 noon on the Friday which also included the single bell at St Michael's.

Thank you to all involved and watch for a full report from our bellringers in next week's news sheet.
