Before the Mountain [Exodus 19: & 20:]

On the first day of the third month following their escape from Egypt the Israelites came to the Sinai Desert and camped in front of the mountain. Moses went up the mountain where he met with God. The Lord told Moses to remind the people that they had been brought out of Egypt by His almighty power and if they kept His Covenant then they would be a treasured possession, a kingdom of Priests and a holy nation. The people agreed to obey and on the third day the Lord descended on the mountain in a dense crowd and spoke to them in a series of religious and ethical directives which in the Hebrew Bible are called the Ten Words but we know them better as the Ten Commandments [Exodus 34 28]. They are an integral part of our Holy Communion Service which call us to exclusive worship, reverence, rest, respect for family, and justice toward others.

In summary they are... 1. Worship no other gods. 2. Do not make or worship idols. 3. Do not misuse the name of the Lord. 4. Remember the Sabbath day and keep it holy. 5. Honour your father and mother. 6. Do not murder. 7. Do not commit adultery. 8. Do not steal. 9. Do not give false testimony against your neighbour. 10. Do not covet what belongs to others.
